

HB 1767 is BAD for OKLAHOMA TEACHERS

JUST THE FACTS

Teachers are not required to be a part of a bargaining unit in Oklahoma under Right to Work

In fact, in Oklahoma they were not required to before Right to Work passed

Teachers have to sign up to be a part of the Collective Bargaining Unit and have dues taken out

The Language in Section I Part C of the bill, regarding "a majority of all employees" has been ruled unconstitutional by a Federal Judge in Wisconsin

House Bill 1767

- ✓ Is an unfunded mandate for the School District. Those type of elections cost taxpayers money
- ✓ Would cause more bureaucratic red tape - taking valuable time from the classroom
- ✓ Is not necessary - teachers can leave a bargaining unit whenever they want.
